

Greetings West Region PWOC Chaplains,

I want to take this time to personally invite you to Protestant Women of the Chapel West Region's Fall Conference entitled: "Women Positioned for Prayer' as we wait for 'Your Kingdom Come'".

Over the last two years, the West Region has been focused on the theme "Women Positioned for Prayer." Our scripture focus has been from 2 Chronicles 7:13-14, and this year the International Theme is "Your Kingdom Come" (Matthew 6:9-13)—which is the Lord's Prayer. As the Regional Board saw these two themes unfold and were able join them together, we became even more excited to see what God is going to do during this conference. So it is with this excitement that we look forward to you, as a PWOC Chaplain, joining us for this wonderful time.

This year's conference will be held October 27-30th in Seattle, Washington. The following are the cost for you as a Chaplain as well as family members—if any will be attending with you:

Chaplain Advisor Cost:

Registration	$65
Room & Meals	$495

Spouse and Family Members Over 18 Cost:

Registration	$65
Meals	$220

Child Cost

Meals	$220

We invite you to attend the workshops as well. However, on Friday, October 28, we will be offering a chaplain only class that will talk about PWOC finances and how you the Chaplain can help your local PWOC group. Then on Saturday, October 29, Ch. Jim Glass will present a class that will talk about understanding the importance and mission of PWOC. Following your Saturday session you will have a private lunch to interact with members of the Regional Board and International Board representatives. Our desire is to give you an opportunity to ask any questions that you might have as the PWOC Chaplain and how we can support your local PWOC regionally and internationally.

Again, we look forward to seeing you during this wonderful time and event that God has provided.

LEONA D. TATUM,
PWOC West Region President
